Description
Provide a short description of the event and its activities.
The kickoff workshop for the HerStories project invited 40 students aged 15 to 18 from Berlin and Hamburg to a one-day event at the Centrum Judaicum, Berlin. The students were asked to reflect on what history means and discussed why women’s stories in particular are important to focus on. A walking tour through the district of Berlin Mitte, following in the steps of Rosa Rosenstein, one of the seven women’s biographies featured in the HerStories project, introduced students to a Jewish woman’s story and her experiences during and after World War II.

Through the activities, students’ familiarization with Jewish women’s stories was increased. Their reflection on their own conception of history made the issue of learning about historical facts important to them. During the workshop session, they developed short presentations on the women’s biographies, thus interacting with the HerStories project biographies and becoming familiarized with 20th century European history, with a focus on female experience.
