

A Project by:

With:

Rosa Rosenstein and her siblings on the outskirts of Berlin, 1926

Teaching 20th Century European Jewish HerStories. Using Berlin as a 3D Classroom

Funded by:

Saturday, September 30

09:00-10:00 Registration at KAS Akademie, Tiergartenstr. 35

10:00 Welcome remarks by Dr. Richard Ottinger (KAS) and Maximilian von Schoeler (Centropa). Introduction into the Centropa's educational programs on 20th Century European Jewish History and Holocaust Education

10:30 Amos Raban, Digital History instructor at the Israeli Education Ministry, will present the Diamond program - a new online platform to teach the history of the Holocaust to high school students in Israel

11:30 Icebreaking activity conducted by Stefanie Böhmann and Monika Anuszkiewicz

12:15 Welcome remarks by Dr. Richard Ottinger from KAS

12:30 Introduction of HerStories project by Johanna Blender (Centropa)

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Group work using HerStories biographies

15:30 Coffee Break

16:00 "A Jewish HerStory of Berlin-Mitte". Guided tour on Jewish women's stories in Berlin-Mitte - through the Spandauer Vorstadt and the former Scheunenviertel

18:30 Free evening in Berlin

Rosa Rosenstein

Sunday, October 1

09:00 Participants to meet at the entrance to the underground Place of Information of the Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe (Cora-Berliner-Str.). Guided tour of the Memorial, the Memorial to the Murdered Sinti and Roma, and the Memorial to the Persecuted Homosexuals

11:30 Free time to explore the underground Place of Information

12:30 Lunch (Amrit restaurant)

13:30 Participants walk to KAS Akademie

14:00 Group work on HerStories GoogleClassroom exercises

15:00 Coffee break at KAS Akademie

15:30 Judith Nockemann and Ithamar Fruchter present their bilateral student project on Emmy Roth

16:00 Creative Methods: using biographical stories as resources, presented by Nicola Andersson (Centropa)

17:00 Screening of Centropa film "From Frankfurt to Tel Aviv" about Erna Goldmann followed by brief discussion

17:45 Historical Lecture by Lilly Maier, Ph D. candidate at University of Munich: "(Jewish) Women Rescuing Jews During the Shoah"

18:30: Free evening

Vera Szekeres-Varsa

Monday, October 2

08:30 Guided tour from hotel to Schöneberg's Bavarian Quarter, with its outdoor "Places of Remembrance" commemorating the discrimination of Jews starting in 1933, with Lowell Blackman and Maximilian von Schoeler

10:20 Departure from Bayerischer Platz to House of the Wannsee Conference

11:00 Guided tour of House of the Wannsee Conference

12:30 Lunch (lunchboxes will be provided). Individual time to explore the exhibition

13:30 Workshop on educational materials at House of the Wannsee Conference

14:30 Departure for Track 17 Memorial

14:45 Visit to Track 17 Memorial, with remarks by Lowell Blackman and ceremony led by Amir Tamari

15:30 Departure to KAS Akademie

16:00: Coffee break

16:30: Seminar wrap up
- Action plan session
- Final discussion
- Online survey

18:30: End of program

Irena Wygodzka